

The Passion Prescription - Part 1: Priority

"Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh. ²⁵And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed."

- Genesis 2:24-25

The Priority Prescription: after God, your marriage has to be _____.

- When you get married, you reprioritize your marriage over your parents.
- Leave does not mean "Never have any contact." It's about establishing a new, separate unit for economics, protection, and decision-making with one's primary loyalty shifting from parents to spouse.

Leaving meant taking _____ for one's own family unit.

Prioritize Spouse Over All Other Relationships, Not Just Parents

1. Friends of the _____

Don't be _____ with opposite sex:
going out to lunch, chatting on the telephone, in vehicle alone,
going to a movie alone. Those are dating activities. You only date your spouse.

2. Your _____ or _____

3. Your _____

4. _____ or _____ wellbeing

5. _____ or _____

When we put anything before our spouse
(besides God), it creates _____.